

God’s Limitless Love

“For God loved the world so much that He gave His one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life. God sent His Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through Him.” John 3:16-17 NLT

God’s love is so vast, so deep and so wide that in our humanness, we cannot fathom its full extent. I would even say that His love is so pervasive that we only have the capacity to experience glimpses of His love. (Romans 8:39) And in that moment, when the curtain of eternity is pulled back even a little, His all-encompassing love overwhelms the receptive heart.

Glimpses of His Love

His love lifted me from a dead-end, sin-wrecked life then launched me into the destiny He had reserved for me. His love raised me from the miry pit of despair, confusion and a tormented mind, giving me hope, peace in my storm, and a sound mind—His Love set my mind free. (Psalms 40:2) His love gives me purpose and a bright future of discovering and experiencing His best Life, for eternity. (Jeremiah 29:11)

His love enables me to walk free of sin—I’m no longer a slave to sin. (John 8:34-36, Galatians 5:16) His love not only saved my soul, His love has healed my body from sickness; His love has saved me from physical death; His love has preserved me in the face of unbridled evil. (Psalms 91) His love has healed my wounded heart, setting me free to love others where I couldn’t before. His love bridges the gulf of unforgiveness, saving me from the ghastly chasm of bitterness.

His love invites me, draws me and ushers me into His presence where He lavishes more of His extravagant love on me—we become one. As I abide in Him, His life flows to me just as a branch receives life from the vine. As a branch biding in His love, He produces fruit in me for His glory. (John 15:7) His love endows me with the fruit of the Spirit—to love the unlovable for His sake, (not in my strength) in His strength. (1 Corinthians 13:1-13) His love is a light unto my path, illuminating His Word and guiding me into His truth. (Psalms 119:105) His perfect love covers a multitude of sins—my sin, and, His love covers me when I suffer from the sin of others. (1 Peter 4:8)

Jesus is the perfect expression of God’s love to the world. Through His love, God desires that none should perish without Him (2 Peter 3:9), but to prosper in all things by knowing Him through His Son, Jesus. (3 John 2) It is in Him, activated by His love, that we live and move and have our being. (Acts 17:28)

Receive Jesus today—receive His love—receive God’s perfect expression of love. (2 Corinthians 5:20) Draw near to Him and let Him overwhelm you with His unfathomable Love. With your mind stayed on Him, abiding in Him, you will surely experience glimpses of His love, too. —Ω

 Information and Revelation
 Transformation

Heavenly Father, I have longed to know of Your love the way I just read. I, too, have had glimpses, but I desire more of Your love—overwhelm me as I am still before You. Thank You for sending Your son, Jesus, whom You gave to save and redeem me as I choose to believe on Him. He is the perfect sacrifice, whose perfect love paid my sin debt. I receive Your Son, Jesus, I believe on Him as the Savior of my soul.

As Your son/daughter, I hunger and thirst for Your love to lift me, and carry me and usher me into Your presence. I submit to Your wooing as You draw me; I yield myself to Your love. You are the Vine who gives eternal Life to its branches. As a branch, I desire to abide in You so I can be one with You. I ask You to help me do that.

Lord, I ask You to give me the desire, ability and the courage to pursue You and experience Your love, for Your Word says that You are a rewarder of those who diligently pursue You. Lord, I agree with Your Word, so help me diligently pursue You. I desire to experience Your love so I can love others more perfectly. Enable me to walk in the plans and purposes that You have reserved for me since the beginning of time, for Your glory. I ask this in Jesus’ name, Your precious Son, the redeemer of mankind. Amen.